

Marsans, Cuban, got three hits in each game, and Esmond whaled four in second.

Harry Krause, sent to Toledo by Connie Mack, has been purchased by Cleveland. Krause has won nine games and lost none since he left the majors. Willie Mitchell was sent to Toledo by the Naps at part of the purchase price.

Bombardier Wells, the English heavyweight, who took a beating from Al Palzer a few weeks ago, knocked out Tom Kennedy in the eighth round at New York last night. The Briton put up a beautiful battle and battered Kennedy at will. He showed none of the wildness that characterized his fight with Palzer.

In an athletic meet at Copenhagen, Ralph Rose won the discus; Donoghue of Los Angeles took the pole vault, and George Horine was first in the high jump. They are all Pacific coast athletes.

Connie Mack has signed another college player. This campus phenom is Fahey, a shortstop from Dartmouth.

Callahan has turned Lefty Mogridge over to Lincoln, of the Western League, for further experience. Mogridge was secured from Galesburg.

Tom McCarey, the coast fight promoter, now says there is no hope of a Wolgast-Rivers match, as Ad refused to sign. Yesterday Tom said nothing would prevent the fight. He may say it again tomorrow.

—o—o—o—
Have you switched to woolens?

SOME EXCITEMENT.

—o—o—o—
Litigant (to lawyer)—I certainly am indebted to you for winning my case. Lawyer—You are mistaken, sir. I represented your opponent. Litigant—Just so,